TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the 'Genuine Salamanders' has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

Every Merchant should have one of these cheap and secure Safes.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief musician and Band Teacher in Gen Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all points in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number, of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. More letters of enquiry for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps

To the Convention.

Members of the Convention who desire the Sentinel left on their desks after to day, will please notify us at the office.

Congress.

The spirit of this body grows no better.—The ready adoption of resolutions or measures which look to the deeper humiliation of the South, may be designed to alarm us, simply with the view of making us surrender quietly to their purpose in regard to negro suffrage. Feeling that it is impossible to subordinate the white people of the South, to the support of a party which has constantly sought their ruin, for the sinister purpose of holding on to the reins of government, they have persuaded themselves that their only hope is from the colored population; they seem ready to adopt any system of taxation however oppressive, or any scheme of humiliation however degrading, to bring us to their own terms.

The proposition to tax cotton five cents per pound, and the lands of the South, two dollars per acre, and to compel the South to pay the extraordinary expenses incurred now unnecessarily by the government for keeping up the Bureau and the military, can only serve to keep up the spirit of alienation, which has been provoked and fostered by the Radicals. All these burdens however, will only fall the heavier ultimately upon the North, whose commerce and business are to be fostered by the products of the South, but which being curtailed heavily by these exactions, must ultimately enure to the injury of Northern enterprise.

Our telegraphic despatches however, giving the proceedings of Congress on Tuesday, seem to show a different spirit. The consent of Congress to allow the late Confederate soldiers the privileges of the homestead bill in the public lands in the Southern States, and the passage of the Bankrupt bill, look somewhat more favorable than any previous action of that body.

The Late George E. Badger.

The action of the bar of Wake county on Tuesday, as published to-day, will be regarded by every one, as exceedingly fit and proper.—There are few, perhaps, who really merit a funeral eulogy. Our best efforts are so mixed with fault, error and sin, and are so few in comparison with our bare faults, that none can claim exemption from moral taint,—none present a perfect character. There are, however, so many excellent points in the character of Mr. Badger, so many to be commended to the youth of the country, and there are so many pleasant memories connected with his history, which should be preserved, that there is a necessity for it, beyond the claims which he had upon the bar, or even upon this community in which he had lived so long.

And then the orator—who could be more fit than WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, his companion and associate, and friend for so many years. To paint such a picture, requires a master's hand, and the bar has been singularly happy in the selection. We hope Mr. Graham will find it entirely convenient to comply with the request.

"We do not know as yet, whether Gov. Worth intends being a candidate or not."—Weldon Stats.

We have not heard Gov. Worth say, that he intended to be a candidate for the office of Governor, at the next term. But we have heard hosts of his friends from all parts of the State say, he is the candidate, and their candidate for the next term. The Stats writes as if there were likely to be many candidates in the field. We judge that those rumors are without any authority from the gentlemen themselves. It, however, any one or dozen, desire to enter the field against Gov. Worth, they may look out for a Waterloo defeat. Fit men however, to fill the position, could hardly be obtained in North Carolina, if they are to be ruled off, after serving twelve months. We anticipate, however, no such purpose or design.

Randolph County.

We have conversed with several gentlemen from this County, who assure us that the proceedings of the late meeting in Randolph, endorsing Gov. Worth, express the sentiments of two-thirds of the citizens of the County.

The attempt to disturb the unanimity of that meeting, was an entire failure. The proposition made by Dr. Sellars for the withdrawal of the Union men from the meeting, was not responded to by any one. Not a single person left the meeting, and the resolution endorsing Governor Worth was carried with only three or four dissenting voices; Dr. Sellars remaining and voting.

The Ephesus Arrived.

We are glad to learn from the Norfolk Virginian that the Ephesus, the vessel engaged as one of the regular steamers between Norfolk and Liverpool, of which Col. Lamb is Agent, had arrived at Boston, would discharge her cargo in a few days, and would soon be at Nortolk to commence her regular trips. The Smyrna, which is also to be put on the line, left Liverpool on the 1st. instant.

D'Israeli on Confederate Recognition.

It may be not wholly without interest, says the Richmond Enquirer, even at this late hour, to learn the cause which prevented England from recognizing the Confederate States during the war. D'Israeli, the great tory leader, in a recent speech in the British Parliament, used the following language:

"No; I confess it, there were members on this side of the House—more than one man of considerable ability—who took a very decided view, and believed it to be for the honor and interest of England that the Southern States should be recognized. They did me the honor of consulting me upon the subject, and I endeavored to moderate their feelings. And what was their reply? They said: 'We have every encouragement from a portion of the Cabinet, and it is your holding back that prevents a great result for the benefit of the country.'"

State Convention.

This body meets to-day. Members have arrived in good numbers which warrant the expectation of a quorum. Hon. E. G. Reade, the President, has arrived and the other officers are on the ground. A carefully prepared account of its proceedings will appear daily in our columns.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE.—We learn that our informant was still more in fault in regard to the number of students at Washington College. From the best information we can get, the number is not more than 150 at present.

THE OLD GUARD.—This sprightly magazine by C. C. Burr, for May, contains a beautiful engraving of Gen. Ewell. The number has its usual entertaining variety.

For the Sentinel.

Ruin! ruin! ruin!—We drop the curtain on the scene.
"Shake not thy gory locks at me!
Thou canst not say I did it."
Standard May 12, 1866.

What a miserable liar was old Macbeth! Why he had just told his wife "I have done the deed," and shuddering at his own bloody hands after the murder of poor Duncan, "This is a sorry sight"! The old wretch had been crazy after office. He wanted to be King, or Provisional Governor, or something of the sort.—"Vaulting ambition which o'er looks itself" had seized him. He had such misgivings about plunging the knife into the bowels of the "gracious Duncan who had borne his faculties so meek" that his knees smote together, at the "deep damnation of his taking off." But he screwed his courage up to the sticking point, swore he "dared do all that may become a man"—(last man and last dollar—eh?) and—took him off!

Banquo and Fleance were still in his path to Provisional greatness. So the sneaking rascal hired three assassins to clear the track. The deed was soon done and shortly after at a royal banquet, the guilty wretch seeing the ghost of the murdered Banquo slowly rising at the table, aghast with terror, shrieked out

"Shake not thy gory locks at me!
Thou canst not say I did it!"

And yet the villain in the one case was the actual assassin, and in the other gave those "bloody instructions" which resulted in sending Banquo unannealed "to that sleep that knows no waking." And this is the deeply injured and most innocent gentleman who could lift his eyes to Heaven and swear

"Thou canst not say I did it"!!!

Right aptly was this quotation made by our amiable and extremely innocent Ex-Provisional Governor. He had no agency in producing the Ruin! ruin! ruin! over which he so properly and pathetically sighs. It is true there is a book extant, such as one might wish his enemy to write. It even goes under his name. But all the world knows that he did not write that book. Some mischievous wags indeed played some sad pranks with the unsophisicated Ex-Provisional Governor "in his salad days" before he became great—and ill-natured people, knowing this fact, have pretended to hold him responsible for utterances which his soul now abhors, and about which he then knew absolutely nothing. There were wild boys in and about his office, sons of Mephestophiles, who constantly delighted in playing tricks with his types, and making them say just the reverse of what was intended. The real editor is presumed never to have looked over his paper after it was printed, by which means these wretched mistakes never happened to be corrected, and a very false record has thus been made of his real opinions. Let not the Ex-Provisional Governor be blamed therefore for his published sentiments. He has really always been a true union man, and has no cause to blush for his own reputed agency in producing the ruin! ruin! ruin! which he sees all around him. "The prime authors of all our woes" and "the worst enemies the President's plan has in this State; are well known to be "The Sentinel, Gov. Worth, and others." They are unconscionably impudent and arrogant," while the "true Unionists," that is to say, all who voted last year for the defeated candidate voluntarily, and under no pressure of fancied expediency, are—ahem!—lilies of the valley, as it were, violets hiding their modest faces in the grass—or in the true Provisional vernacular, "dejected, cowed, proscribed, under the ban, socially, pecuniarily and politically."

It can only be said of these retiring gentry, one and all, that if they entertained and expressed the opinions hereinafter contained in the list of Errata—and afterwards for political purposes disavowed and denied them, they ought to be "dejected, cowed, proscribed, under the ban socially, pecuniarily and politically"—and held in withering contempt by every honest and honorable man in North Carolina and elsewhere, forever and ever.

An expurgated edition of the Standard is greatly needed, and all who have files or access to the files of that paper, will please to correct the following passages—so wantonly interpolated—by making them read exactly the reverse what they seem.

LIST OF ERRATA.

Standard, Dec. 4th. 1850.

"We hold that as no State could have originally have been forced into the Union, none can be forced to remain in, or rather be prevented from going out. * * * * This is no time to dispute about terms. If gentlemen do not like the word secede, and if we cannot consent to use the word revolution, let dissolution be the substitute for both."

Dec. 18th. 1850.

"Let them (the free States) do this, and we march together. Let them refuse, and we dissolve."

Jan. 15th. 1851.

"It is sufficient for us to say, that we hold to the right of secession as an original, pre existing, reserved sovereign right."

May 3rd., 1851.

"The day the death warrant of the fugitive slave law is sealed, will also seal the fate of this Union. Repeal that law and millions of Southern men will go about dissolving the Union as in the performance of a sacred duty. If this Union, then, is to be destroyed, the North and not the South will do it."

June 18th., 1851.

"If preserved at all, (the Union,) as we pray it may be, STATES RIGHTS must do it."

September 12th., 1851.

"The election of Fremont would inevitably lead to a separation of the States. Even if no overt or direct act of dissolution should take place, he could not carry on the government in the South. No true or decent Southern man could accept office under him, and our people would never submit to have their post offices, custom houses and the like filled with Fremont's Yankee Abolitionists. We could not expect nor ask the Northern people to submit in a similar case, and we shall not submit."

September 20th., 1856.

"Fremont and Dayton have no electorial ticket in the slaveholding States, nor will they have. "They are utterly sectional in their character. They stand upon a platform which makes them and their supporters the mortal enemies of every man, woman and child in the Southern States. We regard them as personal mortal enemies."

Oct. 11 1856.

"It is for the North to decide this question. The South will aid the true men there to the extent of her electoral vote; but she can do no more. If the end should come, she will do her duty, it may be with a bleeding and a broken heart, but she will do it, solemnly, finally and irrevocably before God and man."

Nov. 1st. 1856.

"But the leaders among our enemies (the Black Republicans) are to my certain knowledge the meanest and most contemptible creatures on earth, excepting only those in the South that are willing to be governed by them."

June 2d., 1860.

"If the people of the South are true to themselves, they will never be troubled by the decisions of Black Republican judges. But if they submit to the inauguration and rule of Black Republicans, they will bind themselves to submit likewise to the decisions of an abolition court.—It will be too late to resist the court after having submitted to the President. This is our view of it."

January 11th. 1860.

"If a Black Republican or sectional President shall be elected in 1860, we will go with the South—we will stand side by side with the sons of Virginia and South Carolina, as our ancestors did at Yorktown and the Cowpens, and we will do it, clinging to the constitution and despising the forms of a viscious, oppressive and usurping Union. That will be its character under Black Republican rule, and for one we will never bow our head to its degrading yoke. We mean what we say. We have considered the whole subject calmly, and we are prepared for the consequences."

July 24th., 1861.

"He that is not for the South in this contest is against it; and he who would encourage our deadly enemies in the effort they are making to trample us down and destroy us, deserves to die a traitor's death."

August 10th., 1861.

"All she (the South) asks is to be let alone.—She is not let alone as long as the foot of an enemy is on the soil of the Confederate States, and just so long as a single enemy is on her soil, just so long will she fight. This is as little as she can do. If she were to offer less to her enemies, or attempt to do less, she would be unworthy of the spirit and manhood of her people."

October 30th., 1861.

"As soon as Lincoln called for troops to make war on the South, we denounced him as a usurper, and turned our back on the old Union without end. We did this, too with the most entire consistency, for we had always held that the States had a right to secede for cause."

June 14th., 1862.

"Fight! Fight!! Five letters contain the only solution of the difficulties which now hang over the Confederacy."

July 1st., 1862.

"They (the people of N. C.) counted the cost before they commenced the work of independence. They knew that war would come; but they did not shrink from it in defence of their rights. They have been free for eighty years, and, by the blessing of God, they will remain free or die in their tracks. They will make no compromise with the North—they will never cease to fight as long as a federal soldier is on Confederate soil."

February 27th., 1863.

"We are fighting for peace. But we can have no peace unless it comes to us as a self-governing free people. How shall we obtain it? By resting on our arms? By desertion and straggling, and all kinds of expedients to avoid service? By waiting for the Northwest to secede from the Northeast? By depending on foreign intervention? Fellow-citizens, soldiers, these are not the roads to peace. We shall obtain this great blessing only when we shall have thoroughly defeated the enemy at all points, and endured the privations, the losses, and the sufferings of war until that enemy shall have despaired of success. This is the road to peace."

December 1st., 1863.

"We tell Mr. Lincoln that the people of North Carolina may be overrun and physically subdued, but their honor and their proud port as freemen they can never sacrifice. They will take no oaths which their State, in Convention assembled, does not require them to take."

"Shake not thy gory lock at me
Thou can'st not say I did it"

Oh no; certainly not. But oh those rascally boys! "We drop the curtain on the scene."

WHITE LABOR.—One of the largest farmers in this part of the State, told us the other day that he had none but white laborers on his farm, and that he was getting along finely. He refused to employ colored men because he was unwilling to run the risk of being hauled up before the Bureau on the frivolous complaints of some bad or evil-disposed freedman. If the Bureau is continued in existence, we think the day is not far distant when all will have to seek out white labor. This would be unfortunate for the colored man.—Charlotte Democrat.

Additional European News.

NEW YORK, May 23.

The intelligence from the European papers by the City of New York, represent war as inevitable. There is no confirmation of an European Congress or signs of mediation. Earl Clarendon of the House of Lords said, the English government would not engage in war directly or indirectly.

Napoleon's speech at Augerre, said, "I detest those treaties of 1865, which it is now sought to make the sole basis of our foreign policy," a declaration considered signal for war, and the Bourse was panic stricken. Thereupon the London Times, commenting, says, "only Napoleon can prevent war, but unfortunately the Arbiter of the continent speaks only to spread dismay in every Exchange by some doubtful utterances.

An attempt has been made to assassinate Bismark at Berlin. Bisson, the Republican, refugee, fired five ineffectual shots. Bismark seized himand gave him into custody.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 22d.

In the Senate, the Bill relative to the public lands of Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Florida passed to-day. It provides that they be disposed of according to the homestead law of 1862 without discriminating in regard to color. The price of patent $5. It allows the privilege of securing these lands to persons who served in the Confederate army, who take the oath of allegiance.

In the House, the Bankrupt bill passed, yeas 68, nays 59.

Negro Suffrage.

The effort now being made by the Radicals to give to our lately emancipated slaves the political control of the Southern States, will certainly result most disastrously to that race, as it is every day creating a prejudice against them, that never could otherwise exist.

The speech of General Banks on the reconstruction resolutions in the House of Representatives, contains some important admissions as to the purpose of the Republican party. He frankly and unequivocally avowed that it was the purpose and intention of the Republican party to impose negro suffrage upon the whole country, and that the only reason why this is deferred is that the people are not yet sufficiently republicanized to stand such an imposition.—Richmond Examiner.

COFFEE.—The cargo of Coffee spoken of as having arrived on the Schooner Pfiel is of a most beautiful and excellent quality, and in such an abundance as to delight the eyes of those who were denied the luxury during the period of our late struggle.

On the opening of the hatches of the Pfiel, yesterday afternoon, quite a number of persons of both classes assembled on deck to feast upon the delicious ordor arising from the quantity of that plant stored in the hold.

We learn that samples of the article have been taken out, which can be seen at the office of Messrs. O. G. Parsley Importers.—Wil. Jour.

Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, May 17.—Northern capital is pouring into East Tennessee, especially at Nashville and Chattanooga. Many farms are being purchased by former army officers, and the tide of Northern immigration seems to have set in towards that section. Several extensive steam saw-mills, iron foundries, and a large cloth manufactory, are projected at Chattanooga.

The correspondent of the New York Times, who is accompanying General Steedman and Fullerton: speaking of the South Carolina branch of the freedmen's Bureau says: "It is stated on good authority that nine out of every ten cases of outrage committed on the blacks in this Department have been perpetrated by our own (United States) soldiers."

A "DEAD TRAITOR."—The Philadelphia Inquirer speaks of the illutrious "Stonewall" Jackson as a "dead traitor." It would be much more correct to say that he is a dead lion, whose remains are subjected to indignity from a living ass.—Cincinnati Inquirer, 16th.

R. W. Pulliam, R. Gorrell, and Chas. T. Haigh, of North Carolina, were pardoned by the President on Wednesday.

Some of the Massachusetts Representatives in Congress have been dealing in confiscated property and speculating in cotton largely. So says the Boston Post.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

Samuel Balton Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

A. L. Bruce & Co., New York.

An Incident.

On the night of the arrival of the remains of the late Lt. Wm. H. Haywood, in this city; the following appropriate lines were composed by a gentleman of this city, and were forwarded to a member of the family next day, accompanied by a suitable floral emblem. The emblem and lines, we believe, were laid on the bier during the procession;

We bore him to his sacred home,
And the silence of the night;
The footfall steeling that we gave
Like echoes hidden from the sight

No word, no breath beyond a sigh,
To break the solemn, stately tread;
No ray beside the moon in high,
And glitt'ring tear drop for the Dead,

As scattered rich behind the brave,
Like jewels strewn in Glory's way;
As borne anew to Glory's Grave,
In resting triumph there to stay.

And as I raised my eye in tears,
To heave a sigh yet deeper still,
Me thought I saw in upper spheres
The like fond tear the Angel's fill:

Tho, gazing down on buried Love,
Their hearts once warm at human woe;
And now thus lifted far above,
Yet warmer still as sad we go;

In measured tramping by the way,
To Glory's sad yet joyous spot;
While beating echoes proudly say—
They throb for heroes unforgot:

As fancy's ear doth catch awain
This loudest echo ever heard—
The echo for the honored slain,
In woman's breast FOREVER stirred!

And thus beat on, ye hearts so true,
At every step we mourners take;
While bearing thus again to you
The hearts that fame your glory make.

We'll bear them from their homeless bed,
Where waiting now our eager gaze;
And lay them gently with their dead
And crown them with fresh glory's bays.

Meeting of the Bar of Wake.

At a meeting of the bar of Wake county, held 22d. inst., in the court house in Raleigh, on motion of Q. Busbee, Esq., Ex-Gov. Chas. Manly was called to the chair, and W. K. Barham, Esq., requested to act as Secretary.

The meeting being fully organized, the following resolutions, offered by K. P. Battle Esq., were adopted:

Resolved, by the members of the bar of Wake County, that a Committee of five be raised to request, in their behalf, the Hon. Wm. A. Graham to deliver in this city, at such time as may be to him agreeable, an address on the life and character of George E. Badger.

Resolved, That in the event of the compliance by Mr Graham, with this request, it shall be the duty of the Committee to make arrangements suitable to the occasion, and to cause public notice thereof to be given.

The chair appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee: K. P. Battle, Thomas Bragg, J. H. Bryan, H. W. Husted and S. H. Rogers, Esquires.

On motion of J. H. Bryan, Esq., the chairman of the meeting was added to the Committee.

The meeting then adjourned.

CHAS. MANLY,
Chairman.

W. K. BARHAM,
Secretary.

A Worthy Object.

The following appeal for help for the resuscitation of the Washington St. Meth. E. Church, Columbia, S. C., which was destroyed by fire during the sacking of the city by Sherman's troops, will commend itself to the benevolent. Rev. Mr. Murchison is the authorized agent of the Church for the collection of funds to enable that poor congregation to rebuild their Church. He needs no endorsement other than his well known reputation as a minister of the South Carolina conference gives him. Donations from all sources however small, will be thankfully received. Few objects can be more deserving.—The Proprietor of this paper will gladly receive any amount which may be contributed in this State, for the object, and will forward it to Columbia:

AN APPEAL TO THE CHARITABLE.

It has pleased Almighty God in that Providence so inscrutable to man, to allow the Capital of South Carolina to be visited with a fate, the most cruel, which can ever befall any State or City. The dwellings in that once beautiful City were, first robbed and then burned.—Eighty-four squares out of the one hundred and twenty-four, which the City contains, have been entirely destroyed with scarcely the exception of a single house. The ancient capitol building, that venerable structure, which for more than seventy years echoed with the eloquence and wisdom of the most famous statesmen, with twenty-five thousand volumes, the State Library, is laid in ashes, the schools of learning, the shops of art and trade, of invention, and manufacture, shrines equally of religion, benevolence and industry, are all buried together in one congregated ruin. Discouragement throws its dark clouds, and humiliation its ashes over our once happy and prosperous people.

Among those who suffered most in this dreadful and universal wreck, may be reckoned the Washington street Methodist Congregation, the oldest, and one of the largest in the City. Their large house of worship, Sunday school rooms, and two parsonages, were all destroyed in the general conflagration. The Congregation themselves, were completely impoverished, they are unable to rebuild, for fifteen months they have already wandered like sheep without a fold.—The undersigned has been appointed their Agent to solicit contributions, to aid in building an humble place of worship. He now appeals to the christians, patriots, and philanthropists of N. C., in behalf of a houseless, and pennyless people. Any amount they may give, however small, will always be remembered with unfeigned gratitude.

COLIN MURCHISON, Agent.

From the Richmond Christian Advocate.

Acts of the General Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, at its late Session in New Orleans.

The action of the General Conference may be summed up in the following items:

1. The name of the Church it was resolved to change to Episcopal Methodist Church, provided that three-fourths of all the members of the several Annual Conferences shall concur therein.

2. Lay Representation—four laymen, one of whom may be a local preacher, (to be elected by the District Stewards or in such way as the Annual Conferences may direct,) to each Presiding Elder's District in the Annual Conferences; an equal number of laymen and clergymen as representatives to the General Conference, excepting the number be odd, then the advantage of the odd number to be given to the clerical portion—the lay members of the Annual Conference to elect the lay representatives to the General Conference, and the clerical members to elect the clerical representatives. Upon the request of one-fifth of the General Conference, the laymen and the clergymen can form two distinct houses, when a concurrent majority will be necessary to pass any law.—This action, however, is subject to the same confirmation and approval of three-fourths of all the preachers in the several Annual Conferences.

3. The limit of the Pastorate has been extended from two to four years.

4. A system of Church meetings was adopted, to be held once a month if practical, otherwise once a quarter—to be presided over by the preacher in charge. The object of it is to put the membership more thoroughly in connection with the various enterprises of the Church.

5. The probationary system has been abrogated—members are to be received formally by the preacher in charge, according to the form of the baptismal service, or some other form in an appendix to the Discipline.

6. Class-meeting is placed upon the same footing with prayer-meeting, and is no longer a test of membership.

7. The missionary society is divided into a Domestic and a Foreign Missionary Society, with distinct Boards Secretaries and Treasuries—the former located at Nashville, and the latter at Baltimore.

8. Everything in the Discipline in regard to the men and women sitting apart in the church, has been taken out.

9. The whole matter of the quarterage has been merged into a real support.

10. Everything advisory in regard to dress is taken out; and so too all that part which requires preachers to consult the presiding elder upon the delicate subject of matrimony.

11. No traveling preacher can be proposed to an Annual Conference for ordination, except he shall have passed an examination before the Conference Committee to their satisfaction in the prescribed course of study.

12. It is recommended that, for the present, a Biblical Chair be established in connection with each of our Colleges, for the theological education of young preachers.

13. Several important changes in the boundaries of the Conferences were made, for which we refer to the report of the Committee on Boundaries.

14. The vote on licensing preachers and recommending persons for ordination, is to be taken by ballot in the Quarterly Conferences.

15. The colored members of the Church are to be formed into their own Quarterly and Annual Conferences, the latter at the discretion of the Bishops, with a view to their ultimately forming their own General Conference. Meanwhile the Bishops of our Church are authorized to confer with the Bishops of the African M. E. Church, with a view to a union between our Colored Churches and that Church. It is also recommended that day-schools and Sabbath-schools be formed among the colored people whenever practicable.

The Habeas Corpus Act.

PROVISIONS OF THE BILL AS APPROVED BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President having approved the bill passed by Congress amending an act relating to the habeas corpus, and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, and approved in March, 1863, it is therefore a law.

It provides that every search, seizure, arrest or imprisonment made, or any acts done, or omitted to be done, during the rebellion by an officer or person under and by virtue of any order, written or verbal, general or special, issued by the President or Secretary of War, or by any military officer of the United States holding the command of the department, district or place, wherein such seizure, search, arrest or imprisonment was made, done or omitted to be done, either by the person or officer to whom the order was addressed, or for whom it was intended, or by any other person aiding or assisting him therein, shall be held and are hereby declared to come within the purview of the fourth and fifth sections of the said act of March 3, 1863, for all the purposes of defence, transfer, appeal or limitation provided therein." But no such order shall by force of this act or the act to which this is an amendment be a defence to any suitor action for any act done or omitted to be done after the passage of this act. When the said order is in writing, it shall be sufficient to produce in evidence the original, with proofs of its authenticity, or a certified copy of the same; or if sent by telegraph, the production of the telegram purporting to emenate from such military officer shall be prima facie evidence of its authenticity, or if the original of such order or telegram is lost or cannot be produced, secondary evidence thereof shall be admissable as in other cases. The right of removal from the State court into the Circuit Court of the United States may be exercised after the appearance of the defendant and the filing of his plea or other defense in said court, at any term of said court subsequent to the term when the appearance is entered, and before a jury is empanelled to try the same. But nothing herein contained shall be held to abridge the right of such removal after final judgment in the State court, nor shall it be necessary in the State court to offer or give sureity for filing of copies in the United States Circuit Court. But on the filing of the petitions, verified as provided in said fifth section, the further proceedings in the State court shall cease, and not be resumed until a certificate under the seal of the said Circuit Court of the United States, stating that the petitioner has failed to file copies in the said Circuit Court at the next term is produced.

If the State court shall, notwithstanding the performance of all things required for the removal of a case to the Circuit Court, proceed further in said cause or prosecution before said certificate is produced, then in that case all such further proceedings shall be void and of no effect; and all parties, judges, officers and other persons, thenceforth proceeding thereunder, or by color thereof, shall be liable in damages therefor to the parties aggrieved, to be recovered by an action in a court of the State having proper jurisdiction, or in a Circuit Court of the United States for the district which such further proceedings may have been had, or where the party, officer, or other persons offending shall be found, and upon a recovery of damages in either court the party who is plaintiff shall be entitled to double costs.

It is made the duty of the clerk of the State court to furnish copies of the papers and files in the case to the parties so petitioning for the removal, and upon the refusal or neglect of the clerk to furnish such copies, the said party docket the case in the Circuit Court of the United States, and thereupon said Circuit Court shall have jurisdiction therein, and may, upon proof of such refusal or neglect of the clerk of the State court, and upon reasonable notice being given to the plaintiff requiring him to file a declaration petition wherein, and upon his default may order a nonsuit and dismiss the case at the costs of the plaintiff, which dismissal shall be a bar to any further suit touching the matter in controversy.

Raphael Semmes Not Permitted to act as Judge.

MOBILE, May 18.—The Evening News publishes the following order:

HEADQUARTERS DEPT. ALA., }
May 17, 1866. }

In compliance with instructions from the President of the United States, it is hereby directed that Raphael Semmes be not permitted to hold or exercise the functions of Judge of the Probate Court of Mobile county, or any other civil or political office of trust, while he remains unpardoned by the President.

By order,
Brevet Maj Gen. CHAS. R. WOODS,
RAMSEY MENINGER,
Assistant Adjutant General.

MAJOR-GENERAL JOHN H. MCCLERNAND ON THE SITUATION.—General McClernand wrote a letter to a recent Johnson meeting at Macon, Missouri, in the course of which he said:

Glancing at the President's reconstruction policy, what remains to be said? He has officially and formally announced the termination of the rebellion, and the fact that each and all of the States are equally entitled to exercise and enjoy the same relations to the general government. What should the disfranchised States do? As an humble individual, revering the Constitution and respecting the rights of all, I say let these States elect their Senators and Representatives, repair to Washington, and take their entitled seats in those bodies, peaceably if they can, forcibly if they must, and let the consequences take care of themselves.

The Metric System.

A report has very recently been made to the Senate in favor of the adoption of this simple method of adjusting coins, measures and weights. The committee unanimously concurred in recommending the bill and resolutions reported on this subject.

This question was discussed years ago in the South, and urged with great ability by Mr. Loudon, of Richmond, among others, who brought it to the notice of several commercial conventions.

The following description of weights and measures, and their nomenclature, cannot fail to prove of interest to our merchants, to whose consideration as practical men, we recommend the system as one admirably calculated to facilitate the growth of trade.

The meter is the principal and only unit. It is a measure of length, and was intended to be one tenth millionth of the distance of the earth's surface from the equator to the pole. It is 39.27 inches very nearly.

The are is a surface equal to a square whose side is ten meters. It is nearly four square rods.

The liter is the unit for measuring capacity, and is equal to the contents of cube whose edge is a tenth part of the meter. It is a little more than a wine quart.

The gram is the unit of weight, and is the weight of a cube of water, each edge of the cube being one one-hundreth part of the meter. It is equal to 15 grains and 432 one-thousanths.

The stere is a cubic meter.

Each of these units is divided decimally, and large units are formed by multiples of ten, one hundred, &c. The successive multiples are designated by the prefixes deka, necto hilo, and myria—the part by deci, centi, and milli.

The nomenclature, simple as it is in theory, and designed from its origin to be universal, can only become familiar by use.—Norfolk Day Book.

CURE FOR DIARRHŒA, ETC.—An old citizen has been employing the following in his family for years with success:

For Diarrhœa, dysentery, or cholera morbus, take equal parts of tincture of opium, tincture of rhubarb, tincture of red pepper, tincture of camphor and tincture of peppermint, treble strength: put them in a bottle and add two drachms aromatic spirits of amonia, then shake all the ingredients together, cork the bottle and have it ready for immediate use.

DOSE.—Ten drops, twenty drops, or a teaspoonful, mixed with a little sugar and water, to be taken every 15 minutes, or an hour, according to the severity of the attack.

As these are "cholera times," it might be well to paste it up in case it is needed.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.—It is a remarkable fact, says the Jackson Whig, that all those venomous reptiles that have crawled into the Legislature, and now emitting the slime upon the people were hid in the holes and mountains most of the time during the war.—The old he viper crawled into Smoky mountain and hid himself, whilst the little ones secreted themselves in swamps and caves until moss grew green on their backs.

CROPS IN NORTH MISSISSIPPI.—The crops in this part of the country, although somewhat checked in their growth by the cold snaps and rains of late, are still very promising. The farmers are pushing ahead the crops, and are cheerful and full of hope for the future. We do trust that their expectations will be realized, and that another year will find them once more surrounded by plenty.—Hernando Press.

WITHDRAWAL OF DEPOSITS FROM NATIONAL BANKS.—Under the recent order of Assistant Quartermaster General Charles Thomas, the officers of the Quartermaster's Department in this vicinity have withdrawn the public funds in their hands from the National Bank here, and deposited the same in the Treasury.—Washington Star.

CONFIRMATION.—The ordinance of confirmation was administered to twenty-two persons in St. James' Church Sunday morning, and to twelve persons in St. John's Church in the evening, by the Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, Bishop of this Diocese.—Wil. Journal.

Mr. J. Barron Hope, late of the Norfolk Virginian, has become one of the editors of the Day Book of that city.

The Richmond Republic, the paper which got down upon its abdomen to curry favor with those who counselled the abject submission of the Southern people, has been discontinued for the want of patronage. Served right.

We learn from our Texas correspondent that the prospects for crops in that State are very fine, especially the wheat crop, which will be the largest ever made in that State.—Richmond Enquirer.

The Rev. Dr. Cross, late of the Methodist Church, and at one time pastor of Trinity Church, Charleston, is likely to take charge of the Episcopal Parish of Selma, Alabama.

The second session of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the "African" M. E. Church is now in session at Savannah, Ga.

Admiral Wilkes of the Trent seizure, has bought a large landed property in the heart of North Carolina, including extensive iron works, and is engaged in getting ready to develop it.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the ancient nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the [so called] remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box in full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 66 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the space of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January, 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him three Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $3 per dozen. Address,

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonym as with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

$25 REWARD.

My MULE, a large dusky bay horse mule, above the medium size, which was stolen from my premises on the 20th of April last, although I have detected the thief, is still out of my possession. I learn that the animal has been sold to or is in the possession of some one near Nashville in Nash County or may have been sent into Edgecombe or Martin, to evade my search. I warn all persons against trading for said property and would advise any person having the animal in possession to return him to me and claim the above reward, if they would escape the severity of the law.

A NEW PAPER.

I propose to commence, at an early day, the publication of a Daily Paper, in the City of Raleigh, to be called the "CITY INDEX." It will be published on the plan of a Penny paper but not quite so cheap for the present. It will be delivered daily by Carriers, and must be paid for weekly.

The INDEX will be published as a news paper, and will have nothing to do with parties, politics or politicians. It will give the latest news, general and commercial; local and State items; poetry, anecdotes marriages and deaths.

The terms of subscription and advertising will be put at the lowest notch, and will be published in the first issue of the paper.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail road will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs
